Big East Football Federation

Press Release

BEFF Returns with new teams.

The BEFF moves into BNEFF former start date

Hawthorne, NY March 2 2010: After Major reconstruction the Big North East Football Federation Group has divided into two power house leagues, with the triple AAA - BNEFF (Big North East Football Federation) moving it's start date forward to July. The Group will bring back the original BEFF Double AA (Big East Football Federation) The BEFF will start it's season on August 21 2010. So far the BEFF will host 5 new teams into the league of 7 returning teams. The BEFF welcomes following teams; from Pennsylvania the Overbrook Chargers, Lehigh Valley Cardinals, Port Richmond Oilers; from New Jersey the Bridgewater Bear and from New York the NY Hazard. They will join the following returning teams, New York State Broncos, New Jersey Cynder, Brooklyn (NY) Storm, Brook (PA) Ravens, Levittown(PA) Warriors, New York Raiders and the Middlesex (NJ) Vikings.

The BEFF regular season will end October 30, 2010 and the League Championship Game to be played December 4, 2010

. The 2010 BNEFF Group season looks to be the best yet with the balance of teams that will keep our fans on the edge of their seat! Soon there will be a FAN tastic new league web look and this will give fans user friendly pre and post game information.
